
Farwell Mountain 1/12/09

Posted by Brian Kalet - 2009/01/16 09:40

Run 1:

John Minier and I skinned up the west ridge of Farwell Mountain to its summit. We skied the west ridge to treeline skiing primarily sustrugi, then dropped south off the ridge finding deep, but slightly inverted powder in well spaced aspens.
Elevation: ~1800'

Run 2:

We skinned back up to treeline and repeated the run.
Elevation: ~1000'

Run 3:

We skinned back up to the ridge and skied the remainder of the ridge out to the truck.
Elevation: ~1300'

Total Elevation: ~4100'

Distance: ~9 miles

Time: ~5 h
